The challenge

When an unexpected event comes up, the solution contacts immediatly competent and available people. In four clicks, the administrator defines his need, then the platform send a Whoog (mission) to community members, and manage positive or negative answers. Thanks to the Whoog App, build your team with minimal delay. Available on PC/Mac, smartphone and tablet, Whoog is the adequate tool to communicate and reach the right people at the right time.

From the online back office; manage your teams and administer the competencies of your employees. You can also access quality feedback with detailed statistics of your requests.

In order to ensure an optimal comfort of use, access to the platform is outsourced. To connect yourself, send and manage your Whoogs, you can directly go to the online Back Office page.
